MCC PEACE EDUCATION OPPORTUNITIES

Mennonite Central Committee (MCC) U.S. National Peace & Justice Ministries is excited to share about four opportunities for young adults throughout 2022 and early 2023. See below for an overview of each event. Find more information and registration links on the Peace Camps webpage.

Multicultural Peace Collaboration, California, June 14-22

The Multicultural Peace Collaboration (MPC) brings together MCC, Fresno Pacific University, the Center for Anabaptist Studies, the Peacemaker Collective and others to study the Latinx experience through the story of immigration, undocumented workers and the life of Cesar Chavez. The journey begins in San Diego, CA on June 15 and will end in Fresno, CA on June 21 (travel days June 14 & 22). Full scholarship for travel and registration costs is available.

Just Camp...for Justice at Camp Friedenswald, Michigan, July 25-29

This experience will combine the fun and community-building aspects of a week at camp with meaningful service and learning, focused on themes of immigration, transformative justice and healthy dialogue. Come experience the joys of living in a community of radical peacemakers. This camp experience offers the possibility of paying on a sliding scale, as one is able.

Peace Camp Puerto Rico, November 6-11 | Campamento de Paz en Puerto Rico, Noviembre 6-11

Puerto Rico has a complex and compelling history for peacemakers to wrestle with, and a beautiful Caribbean location to do it in. This peace camp will provide young adults the opportunity of hands-on learning as we build community together, deconstruct unjust systems, witness and participate in spaces of healing, engage in hospitality, and discover new ways to live and proclaim the gospel of peace. This experience will be facilitated in Spanish; a minimum of conversational Spanish is expected from all participants.

Peace for the weary at Camp Deerpark, New York, January 2-7, 2023

With rising violence in the U.S. and its pervasive systemic nature, our young adults are grappling with deep pain and trauma as they are simultaneously called to forge a different course ahead. This week-long peace camp will offer spaces and strategies for personal healing, repairing harm, participating in nonviolent intervention, and finding hope when we feel surrounded by violence and destruction. Travel expenses will be covered and registration will cost $200. Watch the MCC U.S. Peace Camps website for more information.

CAMP UPDATES

Camp Deerpark, Westbrookeville, NY, www.campdeerpark.org

On May 2-4 a small group of Camp Deerpark staff, who were not able to attend MCA at Spruce Lake, took a private retreat at Pinebrook. Big thanks to Chad and the folks at Pinebrook for making them feel extremely welcome.
